Code of Conduct

As a member of the NLD RFU Youth Council (NLD RFU YC) you are an ambassador for the sport and as such, will maintain a minimum set of behaviours and conduct during your time on the Council.

The following code of conduct has been agreed by the NLD RFU Youth Council, 2018.

All individuals on the NLD RFU Youth Council will, at all times:

- Respect each other and the views and opinions of other NLD RFU YC members and be inclusive of all within the Council.
- Wear NLD RFU YC branded kit when attending meetings and events on NLD RFU YC business
- Not use mobile phones during meetings
- Reply to communication in a timely manner (i.e. within 5 working days when liaising with NLD RFU colleagues and before deadlines set when liaising with NLD RFU Volunteer Managers)
- Maintain a high level of professionalism when on NLD RFU YC business and wearing NLD RFU YC kit
- Keep information disclosed by the NLD RFU confidential unless otherwise directed by the NLD RFU to share and consult with others.
- Be an ambassador for rugby, the NLD RFU and promote the core values with good knowledge of the NLD RFU YC objectives and achievements.
- Not bring the NLD RFU YC, NLD RFU or rugby into disrepute or do any action that damages or may damage the reputation of the NLD RFU YC or the NLD RFU.
- Use tickets for rugby events as allocated and do not distribute / offer them to friends, family or any other third party.
- Prepare for meetings completing necessary reading and / or research
- Complete actions required by deadlines set by the NLD RFU YC or NLD RFU colleagues
- Be proactive in sharing new ideas for engaging with young people and increasing participation in rugby.
- Be flexible and well organised with a positive attitude, ensuring help is requested if NLD RFU YC commitments cannot be met.
- Not make any public statement (whether made as part of a formal interview or not) on any media (including, without limitation, on social media sites) which is defamatory or derogatory in relation to the NLD RFU.
- Not supply any information to the media relating to the NLD RFU without prior approval.
